

LOVE IN WORKS

Chorus

Love expressed through our works is more important than words.

Love expressed through our works is more important than words. (Repeat)

The most important act in life is simple gestures.

That express our kindness to one another.

The routine of our daily lives is our form of prayer.

We are infused with the kindness lived through our own Charity.

Love expressed in our works is more important than words.

Love expressed in our works is more important than words.

The Lord works through us, like the potter at his bench.

He gives us our ministry.

We are the bearers of His own creativity.

We are infused with the kindness lived through our own Charity.

Love expressed in our works is more important than words.

Love expressed in our works is more important than words.

The love Cointa knows is to serve humankind.

To listen to those who are fragile

To do the "More" and be the faithful call to all His people.

We are infused with the kindness lived through our own charity.

Love expressed in our works is more important than words.

Love expressed in our works is more important than words.
